Superior National Forest - Lake Jeanette

Description

Lake Jeanette Campground is located on a granite rock outcropping in a mix of pine and spruce trees. It offers scenic views of the island-studded lake and, for its size, is one of the busiest campgrounds on the Forest. Naturalist programs are offered occasionally by the concessionaire during the summer months.

In 1933 a Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) camp was established at this site. Over 200 young men in the CCC lived here, built roads and trails, planted trees, and forever enriched the Superior National Forest.
